To build your brand’s awareness and to market the strength of your products and services to a targeted client base, sponsor a New York City Bar event.

The City Bar holds over 300 programs a year. These programs are geared to a broad audience ranging from seasoned attorneys to recent law graduates, from litigation and corporate law to non-traditional practices of law. Attendance varies from 50 to 350+.

Programs available for sponsorship include:

- Professional Development Workshop Series
- Committee on Career Advancement and Management Programs
- Lawyers Connect, First Thursdays
- Law Student Events, including Summer Associates & Interns Reception
- Women in the Profession Programs
- Diversity Conference
- Small Law Firm Luncheon Series
- Small Law Firm Practice Management Symposium
- Continuing Legal Education Programs

Depending on the event, sponsors receive:

- Company representatives at the event
- A sponsor table to distribute materials
- Space for signage at the event
- Recognition in the 44th Street Calendar listings
- Name/logo included on marketing materials for that event
- Logo and link in emails
- Logo and link on website event listing
- Recognition in New York Law Journal event advertisements* (if space is available)

 All attorneys practicing in New York State are required to complete a certain number of continuing legal education credits. The City Bar holds over 150 live CLE programs a year, many of which are available for sponsorship. See more information on the next page.
