Applicants pay an Admission Fee that is a one-time payment equal to their first year's dues. The Admission Fee is waived in certain circumstances. Special dues rates may also apply (see below). Membership dues are based upon earliest year of admission to any bar in any state or country, location of applicant's office, and work setting. Fees for judicial members and those without an office are determined by their legal residence.

Nonresident members are billed annually payable May 1. Student members are billed annually payable September 1. All other members are billed semiannually payable May 1 and November 1.

The Admission Fee is waived for anyone whose adjusted gross income is less than $80,000, solo practitioners, all judicial and academic applicants; applicants in public law offices or public service law offices; law students; those joining within two years of law school graduation who are not yet admitted, nonadmitted JDs, retired and former members.

Special Rates: applicants and members admitted to practice 8 years or more whose adjusted gross income is less than $80,000 per year may pay $165 semiannually.

Sustaining Members voluntarily pay $790 annually to support the New York City Bar's public policy and pro bono activities. Please contact membershipservices@nycbar.org or call 212.382.6663 for more information.

Special Circumstances: If it is financially difficult to join or maintain your membership, please contact the membership office at 212.382.6663 or membership@nycbar.org

All fees and dues are nonrefundable. Dues payments to the Association may be deducted as an ordinary and necessary business expense to the extent permitted by the Internal Revenue Code. We are required by Section 6033(e) of the Internal Revenue Code to inform you that 2.3% of the current dues payment is not deductible because it is attributable to lobbying activities
